

Apostle Dr. Leo Palmer holds both a master's degree and a doctorate in theology. As a passionate apostolic voice for the gospel of the Kingdom, he is committed to leadership reformation that fuels Kingdom expansion.

His mission is to equip others with the wisdom and character needed to advance the true message of Jesus Christ.

He and his wife, Amber, have been married for 29 years and reside in Fayetteville, Arkansas, where they are raising their seven children to carry forward a legacy of faith and Kingdom purpose.